MORE LAND OPENED TO SETTLEMENT

SIX HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE ACRES ON THE ISLAND OF HAWAII JUST SURVEYED.

Lands in the Honoumuli district, island of Hawaii, are shortly to be opened for settlement. The surveyor's charts were received yesterday by Land Commissioner Pratt. They will be sent to Hilo by the next steamer to have the lands appraised preparatory to being thrown upon the market.

"These lands of Honoumuli are agricultural in character, and very rich," says Commissioner Pratt. "There are, all told, a little more than 675 acres, divided into twenty-nine lots, ranging from seven and sixty-four hundredths acres, which is the smallest, to thirty-five and two tenths acres, the size of the largest lot. The average size is about twenty-three and one-quarter acres.

"There is plenty of water, and about two hundred acres of the land has been in cane-is, in fact, in cane now. And the whole tract adjoins cane lands. It lies about two miles back from the coast, upon the slope running up behind Honoumuli plantation, and is about ten miles from the town of Hilo, in the District of North Hilo. It is all below the 1750-foot level, running to the forest reserve line. Some of the lots have forest trees upon them, and will have to be cleared, but the character of the soil is all the same, and very rich. Probably it will all be in cane after it is sold.

"The land must be appraised before it can be offered for sale, and after that, of course, it will be advertised—that is, after the appraisement. The first choice of the lands will go to the Oliver, or Portuguese Settlement Association, that body having been the first to apply for the opening of the lands. This first choice is allowed under the land law of 1895."

A GRACEFUL ACT.

A particularly graceful act was done yesterday afternoon by Miss Jessie MacLachlan, John McLinden, Robert Buchanan and John Ellis by the giving of a concert at the Queen's Hospital for the entertainment of the patients there. The gifted Scottish songstress sang both Scottish and Gaelic ballads to the afflicted there and was rewarded with applause of the most touching kind. McLinden's work on the cello was also heartily received and Ellis sang some Hawaiian songs which reached the hearts of many of the patients.

After the concert Miss MacLachlan went round among the patients and had a kindly word for all of them. The concert was held in the Marine Hospital ward.

INVESTIGATING MORMONS.

The Washington Star of March 22 has the following: "Although the officials of the Department of Justice are non-committal on the subject, it is known that reports have reached the department that polygamy is being practiced in some parts of the Hawaiian Islands, and United States Attorney Breckons at Honolulu has been instructed to make an investigation of the subject."

Speaker Cannon would probably advise members of Congress with personal grievances to exploit to stand pat instead of exposing their hands.

CHUN POON CITED FOR CONTEMPT

CHINESE ACCUSED OF FAILURE TO PAY ALIMONY AND ATTORNEY'S FEES.

Judge De Bolt has cited Chun Poon to appear at 9 a. m. next Tuesday and show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court in disobeying the court's order of March 28 to pay his wife, suing for divorce, $12 a week, the clerk of court $20 for costs and Breckons and Hogan an attorney's retainer fee of $50.

M. DEWITTE

M. DeWitte, who is said to be the man closest to the Czar, admits that the situation in Russia is critical, though he denies that it is as bad as is reported. DeWitte acknowledges that the demand for reform is not confined to any one class, by any means.

CHING'S AIM WAS POOR.

C. K. H. Ching shot his sister through the hand last night in their house in Robello Lane. It is claimed that Ching fired at Him Wo, another Chinese who was in the house for some purpose, not entirely clear. Him is alleged to have climbed through the window in the sister's room. Ching shot at Him who he thought, was trying to injure him but the cartridge was discharged too soon and the bullet struck this sister. She was sent to the Queen's Hospital.

DEFAULT ENTERED.

Default was ordered against defendants by Judge Robinson in the suit of Porter Furniture Co. vs. Deborah Pahau, Mary Kahela and Alexander Pahau.

RICHARDSON CASE.

Judge De Bolt yesterday granted the motion for a bill of particulars in the embroilment case against Vivian Richardson, former clerk of Honolulu Water Works, but denied the motion to quash the indictment.

For the Invalid

Half the cure for any long illness is light. Put a sick person in a sunny room. Give her sunlight as long as there is a ray of it and then when twilight comes, turn on the electric lights.

Twilight hours are bad for ill people. They think sad things in a gray light, and sad things are bad for the health, the circulation flags when the mind is depressed.

Have the electric button placed where the sick hand can easily reach it, and the patient will prove to you how much she craves the light.

Electric light is valuable in a sick room because it is hygienic, cheerful, easy to procure, without odor or deposit; because it does not selfishly exact its portion of oxygen, and because it is at hand any moment at a second's notice.

Electric light in a house is invested capital, the interest from which is amiability, health and a popular fireside.
